

Confidential Resources

Individuals who have experienced or witnessed an alleged incident of sex discrimination or sexual misconduct have many options, including consultation with a confidential resource and/ or filing a complaint (internal and/or criminal complaint). Deciding among these options can be difficult, and individuals are encouraged to seek assistance from a confidential resource before deciding how to proceed.

PIKES PEAK COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Reporting Sexual Misconduct

Pikes Peak Community College is firmly committed to maintaining a work and learning environment where students, faculty, and staff are treated with dignity and respect. Sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and acts of discrimination are illegal, often demeaning for the individual student or employee, and can disrupt the College’s positive learning and working environment. As such, all members of the College community have a responsibility to be aware of what behaviors constitute these offenses and to help create an environment free of harassment or discrimination.

Reporting Options

Individuals who have experienced or witnessed an alleged incident of sex discrimination or sexual misconduct have many reporting options. An individual can pursue the following steps at the same time (e.g., one can simultaneously pursue an internal complaint and a criminal complaint).

File an internal complaint with the College

Interim Actions

Interim actions taken by the college to ensure equal access to its education programs and activities, and foster a more stable and safe environment during the process of reporting, investigation, and/or resolution.

Interim actions are initiated based on information gathered during a report. They may be requested by the parties involved or be imposed by the college at any time, regardless of whether any particular course of action is sought by the reporting party.

Interim protective measures may include but is not limited to:

- ◆ Assistance in setting up initial appointments off campus.
- ◆ Imposition of a trespass warning or a campus “No-Contact Order.”
- ◆ Rescheduling of exam and/or assignments.
- ◆ Providing alternative course completion options.
- ◆ Change in class schedule, including the ability to drop a course without penalty, or to transfer sections.
- ◆ Change in work schedule, work location or job assignment.
- ◆ College-imposed leave, suspension or separation.
